PART I
PRELIMINARY

(2) This Part and sections 45(2) and 46 shall come into force on the day on which this Act is published in the Gazette.

(3) Subject to section 28(5) -

(a) Parts II and III shall come into force throughout Solomon Islands on such day as the Minister may by order under this section appoint (in this Act referred to as “the first appointed day”); and

(b) the remaining provisions shall come into force in a province on such day as may be appointed under section 28(2) (in this Act referred to, in relation to a province, as “the second appointed day”).

2. Schedule 9 contains a glossary of terms; and in this Act unless the context otherwise requires any expression for which there is an entry in the first column of the Schedule -

(a) has the meaning given against it in the second column; or

(b) is to be construed in accordance with directions given against it in the second column.

PART II
PROVINCIAL GOVERNMENT
Establishment of Provinces

3. (1) For the administration of provincial government on and after the first appointed day, Solomon Islands (excluding Honiara) shall be divided into areas to be known as provinces.

(2) The provinces shall be those named in column 1 of Schedule 1 to this Act and shall comprise the islands respectively mentioned in column 2.

(3) Subject to subsection (4), the area of each province shall extend seaward for three nautical miles from the low-water line of each island comprised in the province and, if the island is situated on an atoll or has a fringing reef -

(a) shall include any area contained within the atoll or between the island and the reef; and

(b) shall extend seaward for three nautical miles from the low-water line of the atoll or reef.
The Provincial Government Act - No 7 of 1981

(4) The area of a province shall not extend beyond the boundary lines referred to in relation to that province in column 2 of the Schedule.

(5) The area of Guadalcanal Province shall not include such area of sea adjacent to Honiara as the Minister may by order specify, and an order under this subsection shall be subject to negative resolution.

(6) In this section “island” and “low-water line” have the meanings given in the Delimitation of Marine Water Act 1978.

(7) Nothing in this section shall be construed as affecting traditional rights, privileges and usages in respect of land and fisheries in any parts of Solomon Islands.

4. (1) It shall be the duty of the Constituency Boundaries Commission (in this Part of this Act referred to as “the Boundaries Commission”) to review the boundaries of the provinces not more than five years after the first appointed day and thereafter at intervals of not more than five years.

(2) The Provincial Executives of two or more provinces may jointly make proposals to the Boundaries Commission on any matter about which the Commission has power to make recommendations on a review.

(3) Subject to subsection (4), the Boundaries Commission shall consider any proposals made to it under subsection (2) and review the boundaries of the provinces concerned and any other province which, in the opinion of the Commission, may be affected by the proposals.

(4) The Boundaries Commission is not required to conduct a review under subsection (3) if they are of the opinion that -
(a) the boundaries concerned have recently been reviewed or will be reviewed in the near future; and
(b) the proposals concerned do not require the immediate review of those boundaries.

(5) Where the Minister is of the opinion that serious differences have arisen -
(a) between the Provincial Executives of two or more provinces, or
(b) between an Area Council or similar body of a province and the Provincial Executive, on any matter about which the Boundaries Commission has power to make recommendations on a review, and that the boundaries of the province or provinces concerned have not recently been reviewed and will not be reviewed under subsection (1) in the near future, then the Minister may by order require the Boundaries Commission to review the boundaries concerned and the boundaries of any other province which, in his opinion, may be affected.

(6) An order under subsection (5) shall be subject to affirmative resolution.

5. (1) On a review under section 4 of the boundaries of one or more provinces, the Boundaries Commission may make recommendations to the Minister for effecting changes appearing to the Commission desirable in the interests of effective and convenient provincial government.

(2) The Boundaries Commission may recommend that the changes be made by one or more of the following steps -

(a) altering the boundaries of any province;
(b) establishing a new province by combining two or more existing provinces, or parts of them, or by separating any area from an existing province or provinces;
(c) altering any electoral arrangements (as defined in section 8(5)).

(3) The Boundaries Commission may not on a review under section 4 recommend any change in the boundaries of Honiara.

6. Where the Minister receives any recommendations under section 5, he may introduce a Bill in Parliament for the purpose of -

(a) giving effect to those recommendations; and
(b) making such other alterations in the law as may be necessary or expedient in consequence of the implementation of those recommendations.

(3) In this section "public authority" means -

(a) any department of the Government;
(b) any Provincial Executive;
(c) any Area Council or similar body;
(d) any body corporate established by an enactment; and
(e) any company (within the meaning of the Companies Act) of which a public authority is a member.
32. (1) Subject to section 33, laws may be made for a province by Ordinance of the Provincial Assembly.

(2) An Ordinance shall be enacted by being passed by the Assembly and assented to by the Minister; but the Minister may not withhold his assent from any proposed Ordinance except in accordance with section 34.

(4) On a reference of any provision under subsection (3) -
(a) if the High Court decides that the Assembly has power to make laws as to that provision and any other provision involved in the reference, the Minister shall give his assent and the decision of the Court shall be binding in all legal proceedings; but
(b) if the High Court decides that the provision is not one as to which the Assembly has power to make laws, the Minister shall withhold his assent.
