Act binds Crown

PART 2 – CUSTOMS VALUE OF IMPORTED GOODS

5. (1) In a customs law the value of imported goods for the purposes of imposing import duty is the customs value of those goods and the Comptroller shall determine that customs value in accordance with this Act.

Customs value of imported goods

(2) Where the Comptroller can determine the transaction value of imported goods, the customs value of those goods is the transaction value of those goods.

(3) Where the Comptroller cannot determine the transaction value of imported goods, the customs value of those goods is determined in accordance with the following methods, applied in the order set out below –

- (a) the transaction value of identical goods as determined under section 8;
- (b) the transaction value of similar goods as determined under section 9;
- (c) the deductive value of the goods determined under section 11; or
- (d) the computed value of the goods determined under section 12.

(4) An importer may apply, in writing, to the Comptroller for the order of consideration of the methods in sections 11 and 12 to be reversed.

(5) An application under subsection (4) shall be made before the Comptroller commences to determine that customs value of the imported goods.

(6) If the customs value of imported goods cannot be determined using the valuation methods described in subsection (3), the customs value is the fall-back value of those imported goods.

Inability to determine value of imported goods by reason of insufficient or unreliable information

6. (1) Where the Comptroller is not satisfied that there is sufficient reliable information available to the Comptroller to enable him or her to determine a value of imported goods in accordance with a particular provision of this Act, the Comptroller may determine in writing, that he or she is not so satisfied and the Comptroller is then taken to be unable to determine that first-mentioned value.

(2) Where under subsection (1) the Comptroller is taken to be unable to determine a customs value of imported goods, the importer shall produce further relevant documentation in order that the Comptroller is able to make such a determination of customs value.

Transaction value of imported goods

7. (1) The transaction value of imported goods is the price actually paid or payable for the goods at the time they are sold for export to Solomon Islands adjusted by the amounts specified in subsections (2) and (3).

(2) For the purposes of determining the transaction value of imported goods, the price actually paid or payable for the goods is increased by the sum of the following amounts paid or payable, directly or indirectly, by or on behalf of the purchaser in respect of the goods to the extent that the amount is not already included in the price

- (a) commission and brokerage in relation to the imported goods other than fees paid or payable by the buyer to the buyer's agent for the service of representing the buyer overseas in respect of the purchase of the goods;
- (b) packing costs, including labour and material costs;
- (c) the cost of containers that are treated as being as one with the imported goods;

- (d) royalties and licence fees, including payments for patents, trademarks, and copyrights in respect of the imported goods that the buyer shall pay, directly or indirectly, as a condition of the sale of the goods for export to Solomon Islands, other than for the right to reproduce the goods in Solomon Islands;
- (e) the cost of transportation and insurance of, and the loading, unloading, and handling charges, and other charges and expenses associated with the transportation of, the imported goods until the goods have left the country of export if such costs, charges, and expenses are paid or payable by the buyer, directly or indirectly, to or for the benefit of the seller as a condition of the transaction;
- (f) the value of any part of the proceeds of any subsequent resale, disposal, or use of the goods by the buyer that accrues or is to accrue, directly or indirectly, to the seller;
- (g) the costs or charges related to the purchase of the finance for the imported goods; and
- (h) the value of any of the following goods and services supplied, directly or indirectly, by the purchaser free of charge or at a reduced cost for use in connection with the production and sale for export of the imported goods, apportioned to the goods in a reasonable manner and in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles –
 - (i) materials, components, parts, and other goods incorporated in the production of the imported goods;

- (ii) tools, dies, moulds, and other goods utilised in the production of the imported goods;
- (iii) materials consumed in the production of the imported goods; and
- (iv) engineering work, development work, art work, or design work, plans or sketches undertaken outside Solomon Islands and necessary for the production of the goods.

(3) For the purposes of determining the transaction value of imported goods, the price actually paid or payable for the imported goods is decreased by the sum of the following amounts to the extent that the amount is otherwise included in the price paid or payable for the goods and separately identified in the price –

- (a) expenditure incurred in the construction, erection, assembling or maintenance of, or technical assistance provided in respect of the goods after importation;
- (b) the cost of transportation (including loading, unloading, handling and other expenses associated with transportation) of the goods after importation, and the cost of any insurance relating to such transportation;
- (c) customs duties or other taxes payable in Solomon Islands by reason of the importation or sale of the goods; and

- (d) the costs or charges related to the purchase of the finance for the imported goods and paid or payable to the supplier.

8. (1) For the purposes of this Act, "identical goods", in relation to imported goods, means goods that the Comptroller is satisfied –

Transaction value
of identical goods

- (a) are the same in all material respects, including physical characteristics, quality and reputation, as the imported goods;
- (b) were produced in the same country as the imported goods; and
- (c) were produced by or on behalf of the producer of the imported goods, but not being goods in relation to which –

- (aa) art work, design work, development work, engineering work undertaken, or substantially undertaken, in Solomon Islands; or
- (bb) models, plans or sketches prepared, or substantially prepared, in Solomon Islands, was or were supplied directly or indirectly by or on behalf of the purchaser free of charge or at a reduced cost for use in relation to their production.

(2) Where the Comptroller after reasonable inquiry is not aware of any goods that may be treated under subsection (1) as identical goods in relation to the goods to be valued, the Comptroller may disregard the requirement in paragraph (1)(c) for the purpose of treating goods as identical goods in relation to the imported goods.

(3) If the customs value of imported goods cannot be determined under section 7, the customs value of those goods is the transaction value of identical goods in respect of a sale of those goods for export to Solomon Islands if –

- (a) the transaction value of the identical goods is the customs value of those goods; and
- (b) the identical goods were exported to Solomon Islands at the same or substantially the same time as the imported goods being valued and were sold to a buyer at the same or substantially the same trade level as the buyer of the goods being valued; and in the same or substantially the same quantities as the goods being valued.

(4) Where the Customs value of imported goods cannot be determined under subsection (3) because identical goods were not sold under the conditions described in paragraph (3)(b), the customs value of those goods may be determined by reference to the transaction value of identical goods in respect of a sale of those goods for export to Solomon Islands if the identical goods were sold under any of the following conditions –

- (a) to a buyer at the same or substantially the same trade level as the buyer of the imported goods being valued but in quantities different from the quantities in which the imported goods were sold;
- (b) to a buyer at a trade level different from that of the buyer of the imported goods being valued but in the same or substantially the same quantities as the quantities in which those imported goods were sold; or
- (c) to a buyer at a trade level different from that of the buyer of the goods being valued and in quantities different from the quantities in which those goods were sold.

(5) For the purposes of determining the customs value of imported goods under this section, the transaction value of identical goods is adjusted to take account of –

- (a) commercially significant differences in the cost of transportation and insurance of, and the loading, unloading, and handling charges, and other charges and expenses associated with the transportation of, the identical goods until the goods have left the country of export and those costs, charges and expenses in respect of the imported goods being valued that are attributable to differences in distances and modes of transport; and
- (b) where subsection (4) applies, differences in the trade levels of the buyers of the identical goods and the goods being valued or the quantities in which the identical goods and the goods being valued were sold or both, as the case may be.

(6) If there is insufficient information to determine an amount under subsection (5), the customs value of the imported goods cannot be determined under this section.

(7) Where, in relation to imported goods being valued, there are two or more transaction values of identical goods that meet all the requirements set out in this section, the customs value of the imported goods shall be determined on the basis of the lowest of those transactions values.

9. (1) For the purposes of this Act, “similar goods”, in relation to imported goods, means goods that the Comptroller is satisfied –

- (a) closely resemble the imported goods in respect of component materials and parts and in respect of physical characteristics;

Transaction value
of similar goods

- (b) are functionally and commercially interchangeable with the imported goods having regard to the quality and reputation (including any relevant trade marks) of each lot of goods;
- (c) were produced in the same country as the imported goods; and
- (d) were produced by or on behalf of the producer of the imported goods,

but not being goods in relation to which –

- (aa) art work, design work, development work or engineering work undertaken, or substantially undertaken, in Solomon Islands; or
- (bb) models, plans or sketches prepared, or substantially prepared, in Solomon Islands,

was or were supplied directly or indirectly by or on behalf of the purchaser free of charge or at a reduced cost for use in relation to their production.

(2) Where the customs value of imported goods cannot be determined under section 7 or 8, the customs value of those goods is the transaction value of similar goods in respect of a sale of those goods for export to Solomon Islands if –

- (a) the transaction value of the similar goods is the customs value of those goods; and
- (b) the similar goods were exported to Solomon Islands at the same or substantially the same time as the imported goods being valued and were sold to a buyer at the same or substantially the same trade level as the buyer of the goods being valued, and in the same or substantially the same quantities as the goods being valued.

(3) Subsections 8(4) to (7) apply to this section as if every reference in those subsections to “identical goods” is a reference to “similar goods”.

10. (1) The transaction value of imported goods will not determine the customs value of imported goods if the following circumstances apply –

Transaction value
not to apply

- (a) there are restrictions on the disposition of the imported goods other than –
 - (i) restrictions imposed or required by, or by any public officer or authority acting in accordance with, a law in force in Solomon Islands;
 - (ii) restrictions that limit the geographical in which the goods may be resold; or
 - (iii) restrictions that do not substantially affect the value of the imported goods;
- (b) the sale of the imported goods is subject to some condition or consideration in respect of which a value cannot be determined;
- (c) part of the proceeds of any disposal, use or resale of the goods by the purchaser accrues, directly or indirectly, to the vendor, unless an appropriate adjustment can be made; or
- (d) the buyer and seller of the goods are related at the time the goods are sold for export except in the situation –
 - (i) where the Comptroller is satisfied that the relationship did not influence the price paid or payable for the goods; or

- (ii) where the importer demonstrates to the satisfaction of the Comptroller that the transaction value of the goods closely approximates the transaction value, deductive value, or computed value of identical or similar goods sold at comparable trade and quantity levels to unrelated buyers in Solomon Islands at or about the same time as the goods to be valued.

(2) In a sale between related persons, for the purposes of showing that the relationship did not influence the transaction value, the importer shall produce such evidence or information as is prescribed or which the Comptroller otherwise requests.

Deductive value

11. (1) Subject to section 5, if the customs value of imported goods cannot be determined under section 7, 8 or 9, the customs value of the imported goods is the deductive value of the goods.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), where the imported goods being valued or identical goods or similar goods are sold in Solomon Islands in the condition in which they were imported at or about the time of importation, the deductive value of the goods being valued is the price per unit of the imported goods, or identical or similar goods as the case may be, at which the greatest number of the goods are sold, reduced on a per unit basis by the amounts specified in subsection (4).

(3) Subsection (2) will only apply if the Comptroller is satisfied –

- (a) that the purchaser is not related to the importer; and
- (b) that, in relation to the imported goods to be valued, the purchaser did not supply free of charge or at a reduced cost for use in connection with the production and sale for export of the imported goods, the goods, material and services referred to in section 7(2)(h).

(4) For the purposes of subsection (2), the value of the imported goods to be valued is reduced on a per unit basis by –

- (a) the amount of any commission;
- (b) an amount for profit and general expenses, including all costs of marketing the goods based on sales in Solomon Islands of goods of the same class or kind as the goods sold;
- (c) reasonable costs, charges, and expenses that are incurred in respect of the transportation and insurance of the goods within Solomon Islands, to the extent that those costs and charges have not already been deducted under paragraph (b); and
- (d) customs duties or other taxes payable in Solomon Islands by reason of the importation or sale of the goods.

(5) If the imported goods being valued or identical goods or similar goods are not sold in Solomon Islands at or about the time of importation but are sold in the condition in which they were imported within ninety days after the time of importation and subsection (3) is satisfied, the deductive value is determined by reference to the later sale.

(6) Subject to subsection (7), if the imported goods being valued or identical goods or similar goods are not sold in the condition in which they were imported in Solomon Islands at or about the time of importation or within ninety days after the time of importation but –

- (a) the goods, after being assembled, packaged, or further processed, are sold within ninety days after the time of importation; and

- (b) subsection (3) is satisfied, the deductive value of the imported goods may be determined at the request of the importer by reference to that sale after reduction on a per unit basis for the value added attributable to the assembly, packaging or further processing of the goods in Solomon Islands.

(7) Subsection (6) will not apply if the Comptroller has insufficient information to determine the amount of the value added attributable to the assembly, packaging or further processing of the goods in Solomon Islands.

Computed value

12. (1) If the customs value of imported goods cannot be determined under section 7, 8, 9 or 11, the customs value of the imported goods is the computed value of the goods.

(2) The computed value of imported goods is such part of the sum of the following amounts as the Comptroller considers should be apportioned to the production of those goods –

- (a) the cost or value of materials used in producing the goods;
- (b) the cost of manufacture or processing to produce the goods;
- (c) the cost of containers that are treated as being as one with the imported goods;
- (d) the cost of transportation and insurance of, and the loading, unloading, and handling charges, and other charges and expenses associated with the transportation of, the imported goods until the goods have left the country of export if such costs, charges, and expenses are paid or payable by the buyer, directly or indirectly, to or for the benefit of the seller as a condition of the transaction;

- (e) the value of any part of the proceeds of any subsequent resale, disposal, or use of the goods by the buyer that accrues or is to accrue, directly or indirectly, to the seller;
- (f) the value of any goods, material and services referred to in section 7(2)(h); or
- (g) an amount for profit and general expenses equal to that generally applicable in sales of goods of the same class or kind as the imported goods, which are made by producers in the country of exportation and are the exporter's goods.

13. The fall-back value of imported goods is the value that the Comptroller determines having regard to the other methods of valuation under this Act in the order in which those methods would ordinarily be considered under section 5 and such other matters as the Comptroller considers relevant but not having regard to any of the following matters –

Fall-back value

- (a) the selling price in Solomon Islands of the goods produced in Solomon Islands;
- (b) any system that provides for the acceptance for valuation purposes of the higher of two alternative values;
- (c) the price of the goods on the domestic market of the country from which the imported goods were exported;
- (d) the cost of production of the goods, other than the computed value of identical goods or similar goods;
- (e) the price of the goods sold for export to a country other than Solomon Islands and not imported into Solomon Islands;

- (f) any system that provides for minimum values for Customs purposes; or
- (g) arbitrary or fictitious values.

Importer advised of method of determination

14. The Comptroller shall, upon written request, advise the importer, by notice in writing, of the method used to determine the customs value of imported goods.

Values of goods to be declared in the currency of Solomon Islands

15. (1) The customs value shall be expressed in a customs declaration in Solomon Islands currency.

(2) Where the conversion of currency is necessary for the determination of the customs value, the rate of exchange to be used is the rate published for the relevant country of export by the Central Bank of Solomon Islands as last notified before the goods were entered.

Review of determinations and other decisions

16. (1) At any time after the making of a determination or other decision under this Act in relation to imported goods, the Comptroller may review the determination or other decision and may –

- (a) affirm the determination or other decision;
- (b) vary the determination or other decision; or
- (c) revoke the determination or other decision and make any other determination or decision that is required to be made for the purpose of determining the customs value of the goods in accordance with this Act.

(2) Where, by reason that the Comptroller, under subsection (1), has varied or revoked a determination or other decision or has made a determination or other decision that is required to be made by reason of the revocation of a determination or other decision –

- (a) an amount of duty that was levied is less than the amount that should have been levied; or

- (b) an amount of duty that was refunded is greater than the amount that should have been refunded, the amount of duty that is unpaid or the amount of refund that was overpaid is a debt due to the Crown and is payable by the owner of the goods.

- (3) Where a customs value has been reviewed and a re-determination made under this section, the re-determined customs value is taken to be the correct customs value for the purposes of this Act.
