(b) examine any food intended for export for sale or any food imported, manufactured, held, handled, prepared, processed, preserved, packed, stored, displayed, or offered for sale or sold;

(c) open and examine any container or package that the health inspector reasonably believes contains any article, food or record described in paragraphs (a) or (b);

(d) open and examine any such article or record;

(e) demand, select and obtain samples of such food and articles in accordance with procedures prescribed in this Act and regulations;

(f) examine any labelling or advertising material which appears to the health inspector to be intended for use in connection with the sale of any such food or article or to have been used for such purpose;

(g) stop and detain any vehicle which the health inspector is authorised in paragraph (a) to enter;

(h) take such photographs or recordings as the health inspector considers necessary; or

(i) generally make such investigations and enquiries as may be necessary to ascertain whether an offence against this Act or regulations is being or has been committed.

(2) When exercising his powers under this Part, a health inspector shall have on his person a certificate of authority in the form prescribed in the regulations and, if requested to do so by any person in charge or apparently in charge of that premises, place or vehicle produce his certificate of authority.

10. (1) The Director or provincial authority as the case may be, shall cause inspections of premises of prescribed businesses to be performed in the manner prescribed by regulations.

(2) A fee to recover the cost of an inspection service shall be charged at the rate prescribed in the regulations.

11. (1) In the performance of an inspection under section 9, a health inspector may seize any food or article or record that is, or appears to him to be -

(a) dangerous;

(b) injurious to health;

(c) unfit for use;

(d) unwholesome; or

(e) otherwise adulterated or falsely described, as evidence that an offence against the Act or regulations is being or has been committed.

Frequency of inspection and fee for service for prescribed businesses.

Seizure and condemnation of food, articles and records.

(2) A health inspector who seizes any food or article or record under subsection (1) shall provide the person in whose possession such food, article or record was found, a certificate of seizure as prescribed in the First Schedule.

(3) A health inspector who seizes any food under subsection (1) shall condemn and destroy any such food if it appears to him to be -

(a) putrid or likely to putrefy before the health inspector can have it dealt with by a Magistrate; or

(b) an immediate risk to human health, so however, that in such instances, the health inspector shall issue the person in whose possession the food was found a certificate of condemnation as prescribed in the First Schedule.

(4) An inspector who seizes any food under sub section 11(1) shall condemn and stamp the food as not fit for human consumption or destroy such food if it appears to him to be unfit for human consumption. In such instances, the inspector shall issue the person in whose possession the food was found a certificate of condemnation as prescribed in the First Schedule.

(5) With the exception of a seizure described under subsection (3), a health inspector who seizes any food or article or record under subsection (1) shall inform the person in whose possession the food, article or record was found -

(a) that, if the person does not consent to the destruction of any food or article so seized, it is his intention to have it dealt with by a Magistrate; and

(b) that any person who, under the Act or regulations, may be liable to prosecution shall, if he attends before the Magistrate upon application for the condemnation of the aforementioned food or article, be entitled to be heard and call witnesses.

(6) A health inspector shall label or mark, seal or fasten up the seized article, food or record as its nature allows. Upon seizing an article, food or record, the health inspector may require the seized article, food or record to remain in, at or on the premises, place, or vehicle where it was found at the time of seizure.

(7) If it appears to any Magistrate that any food or article brought before him, whether seized under the provisions of this section or not, is -

- (a) dangerous;
- (b) injurious to health;
- (c) unfit for use;

(8) If a Magistrate refuses to condemn any food or article seized under the provisions of this section, such food or article shall be returned forthwith to the person in whose possession it was found at the time of seizure.

(9) If a Magistrate condemns the food or article under subsection (7), the costs incurred by the local or provincial authority in connection with the lawful destruction or disposal of the item is a debt due to that authority from the person in whose possession the food or article was found at the time of seizure.

(10) Any such debt as described in subsection (9) is recoverable in a court of competent jurisdiction and, in any such proceedings, a certificate signed by the Permanent Secretary, Provincial Secretary or Town Clerk stating the amount of any costs and the manner in which they were incurred is evidence of matters certified therein.

12. (1) Any health inspector who takes a sample of food offered for sale under the provisions of section 9, shall divide, mark, seal and fasten such sample in such manner as its nature permits and deal with it in the manner prescribed by regulations.

(2) The health inspector who obtains a sample under the provisions of subsection (1) shall -

(a) inform the person appearing to be the person having lawful custody of the article, that the sample was taken for the purposes of analysis; and

(b) tender payment as prescribed by regulations to the person from whom the sample was taken.

13. On obtaining the samples, the health inspector shall cause the samples to be labelled as prescribed in the Second Schedule and forward to an analyst with a Request Form for Analysis as prescribed in the Third Schedule.

14. (1) The analyst to whom a sample is forwarded in accordance with the provisions of section 13, shall cause an analysis to be carried out in the manner prescribed by regulations and submit a certificate in the form provided in the Fourth Schedule.

(2) In any proceedings under this Act, the production by any of the parties of the certificate of the analyst shall be prima facie, evidence of the facts stated therein.

Sampling food.

Sampling articles.

Tender of payment for samples.

PART V

GENERAL ENFORCEMENT PROCEDURES

Cleanlines and sanitation.

15. A person who fails -

(a) to obtain, manufacture, process, preserve, handle, use, prepare, store, transport, deliver, display or serve food for sale or sell food in clean and sanitary conditions as prescribed by the regulations; or

(b) to use hygienic practices as prescribed by the regulations to obtain, manufacture, process, preserve, handle, use, prepare, store, transport, deliver, display, serve food for sale or sell food is guilty of an offence.

Closure of unclean and insanitary premises.

16. (1) When a health inspector, during an inspection under section 10, identifies a premises as unclean and insanitary, he shall prior to initiating court proceedings under this Act or regulations serve a clean-up notice on the proprietor of the premises.

(2) The clean-up notice described in subsection (1) shall take the form of an order that the premises be put into a clean and sanitary condition, as prescribed in the notice and to the satisfaction of the health inspector, within a period of twenty-four hours after the service of the notice on the proprietor.

(3) If, after the expiration of the requisite period, the health inspector is not satisfied that the premises complies with the requirements of the clean-up notice and this Act or the regulations, the Director or provincial authority as the case may be, shall upon the advice of the health inspector serve or cause to be served on the proprietor, an order for temporary closure of the premises for seventy-two hours after the service of the notice, or until the premises complies with the prior clean-up notice, whichever occurs first.

(4) An order for temporary closure described in subsection (3) shall take the form of an order that no food be sold, transported for sale (if the premises is a vessel or vehicle), prepared for sale, processed or handled for sale until the health inspector has given the proprietor a certificate of clearance as prescribed in the Fifth Schedule certifying that the premises, at the time of inspection, is in a clean and sanitary condition.

(5) A proprietor who does not comply with the order for temporary closure within twenty-four hours of the order being served is guilty of an offence.

(6) The proprietor of the premises may, at any time after being served with the temporary closure order, deliver to the health inspector, a request in writing for the health inspector to re-inspect the premises.

(7) If such a written request is made and the health inspector does not inspect the premises within twenty-four hours or the Town Council or Provincial Council, as the case may be, may on receipt of a request cause such inspection to be carried out.

(8) If upon re-inspection within twenty-four hours of receiving a request for re-inspection or at the end of the seventy-two hours temporary closure, the health inspector believes the premises does not comply with the requirement of this section, the health inspector shall initiate legal proceedings against the proprietor, unless that proprietor voluntarily maintains the closure of the premises. If the premises do comply the health inspector shall immediately provide a certificate of clearance.

17. (1) A person who prepares, packs, stores, processes, handles or serves food for sale, or who enters a premises in, on or at which such person is normally employed in the preparation, packing, storage, processing, handling or serving of food for sale, and -

(a) is suffering from a disease prescribed in the Sixth Schedule or any other disease specified by the Minister;

(b) is a carrier of a disease causing agent for those diseases prescribed in Sixth Schedule or any other disease specified by the Minister;

(c) has on any part of his body, any boil, infected wound or sore that is uncovered, partially covered or covered with a bandage or dressing other than one that is waterproof; or

(d) has on any part of his body any other disease specified by order published by the Minister, is guilty of an offence.

(2) A person who permits a person, to whom subsection (1) applies, to enter a premises in, on or at which food for sale is normally prepared, packed, stored, processed, handled or served is guilty of an offence.

Prohibition of affected persons.

Notification of food-borne disease.

18. (1) A medical practitioner or health worker shall within twenty-four hours of diagnosis notify the Director of -

(a) any possible case of foodborne disease (including both poisoning and intoxication); or

(b) any clustering of diarrhoeal disease at an incidence rate above that considered normal for the given population for which no other causal factor can be established.

(2) The notifications required in subsection (1) shall be in the form prescribed in the regulations.

(3) The Director shall cause an investigation to be held for all notifications under subsection (1) within twenty four hours of receipt.

(4) The Director shall communicate any notification under subsection (1) to the Principal Health Inspector (Food Safety) within seventy-two hours.

(5) The Principal Health Inspector (Food Safety) shall collate the data obtained and distribute the national data on food-borne disease to the Director on a quarterly basis.

Power of Minister to declare an area closed to food production.

19. The Minister may prohibit by order the cultivation, taking, harvesting, or otherwise obtaining of any food from any area if, in the opinion of the Minister upon the advice of the Board, that food may be dangerous or injurious to persons who consume that food.

Irradiated food.

20. (1) For the purposes of the Act "ionizing radiation" shall mean all radiation, of a wave length not greater than 100 nanometres, capable of producing ions directly or indirectly in passage through matter.

(2) No person shall manufacture, sell, import, process, use, prepare, store or display for sale food -

(a) that has been intentionally exposed to ionising radiation without the prior approval of the Minister to irradiate the food; or

(b) that has been accidentally exposed to ionising radiation.

21. (1) A health inspector who has, in the course of his duties under the Act, obtained confidential information relating to manufacturing or commercial secrets, shall not disclose that information without -

Trade secrets.

- (a) the consent of the person who has proprietary interest in the information;
- (b) being ordered to do so by a court;
- (c) receiving prior permission of the Minister; or
- (d) doing so for the purposes of executing his duties under this Act and the regulations.

PART VI

IMPORTING AND EXPORTING FOOD

22. (1) An agriculture, quarantine or health inspector shall, immediately upon receipt of documentation addressing the importation of food for sale, inform the health inspector responsible for inspection of imported food.

Importing food.

(2) A person intending to import food for sale shall also notify the Director in writing of his intention to import food. The Director shall, in such cases, direct and cause an appropriate health inspector to carry out any inspection and sampling required.

(3) The health inspector identified in subsections (1) and (2) shall review relevant documents including export certifications provided by competent overseas authorities and carry out any inspection and sampling required, as soon as possible and in a manner so as not to unnecessarily delay the release of the food from customs and quarantine.

(4) Where a sample is collected under subsection (3) for further inspection or analysis, a collection report shall be completed by the responsible health inspector. The collection report shall be in the form prescribed in the Seventh Schedule. The sample shall be sealed, labelled and delivered to the analyst as required under Part IV.

(5) If, in the opinion of the health inspector, as a result of document review, inspection and analysis, and the imported food satisfies the requirements of the Act, its regulations and standards, the health inspector may either -

(a) provide written clearance to an appropriate quarantine inspector; or

(b) issue an import permit as prescribed in the Eighth Schedule for food not included under the Agricultural Quarantine Act 1982 or the Agricultural Quarantine Order 1986.

(6) For those importers who have notified the Director of their intention to import at least seventy-two hours prior to the food's arrival in the country, the Director may, upon the risk assessment advice from the health inspector who has reviewed all the necessary documentation, issue a permit prior to the arrival of the food in the country.

(7) If, in the opinion of the health inspector, as a result of document review, inspection or analysis were required of the imported food and the imported food does not satisfy the requirements of this Act, the regulations or standards, the health inspector may reject any or all food found deficient. In all cases, if the food is rejected, the invoice and manifest shall be marked "REJECTED" and returned to the Customs together with a copy to the Director of Agricultural Quarantine in the form set out in the Ninth Schedule.

(8) Where the food is rejected but the health inspector considers it suitable for relabelling, the importer may relabel the food in accordance with the requirements of this Act and the regulations. Where the food is not relabelled within this period, the food shall be exported by the importer within a period of three months or such other period as the Minister may determine.

(9) If the food is rejected under this Part and the importer fails to satisfy the requirements of subsection (8), the food shall be forfeited and disposed of as the Director may direct at the expense of the importer or his agent.

(10) A permit to import food whether of animal or of plant origin provided for under the Agricultural Quarantine Act 1982 and the Agricultural Quarantine Order 1986, shall not be issued without written clearance from the health inspector referred to in subsection (1) or a health inspector acting on his behalf or from the Director.

(11) Food for sale shall not be removed from Customs and Quarantine without a permit to import provided under either subsection (3) or subsection (6).

(12) A person who imports food for sale in contravention of, or who fails to comply with the requirements of this section is guilty of an offence

23. (1) Any person who intends to export food for sale shall notify the Director or his representative of his intention to do so. This notice shall be delivered to the Director or the Principal Health Inspector (Food Safety) not less than twelve hours before the food is exported from the country.

(2) Any food harvest, handled, processed, prepared, stored, transported or distributed for export or sale shall satisfy all the requirements of food for sale under this Act and the regulations.

(3) Any person who intends to export food for sale may on application to the Director have a plant registered as a quality assurance plant approved under the quality assurance programme that the food produced therein meets the standard prescribed for export. Such certification shall be in the form prescribed in the Tenth Schedule which shall further state that -

(a) the food products have been inspected by officers of the Department of Environmental Health and analysed by an analyst authorised under this Act and were found to be in accordance with the Act and the regulations; or

(b) the food products have been inspected by officers of the Department of Environment Health and analysed by a laboratory certified by an approved laboratory certification scheme and were found to be in accordance with the Act and the regulations; or

(c) the food products have been produced under conditions of good manufacturing practice (GMP) and the company has employed hazard analysis control point system (HACCP) or their equivalent to assure the safety of the food produced. The production of the described products has been supervised by an authorised inspector of the Department of Environmental Health to assure compliance with GMP and HACCP; or

(d) have been produced under conditions of good manufacturing practice (GMP) and the company has employed hazard analysis critical control point system (HACCP) or their equivalent to assure the safety of the food produced. The company is part of an approved quality assurance programme and the described products were produced in accordance with this programme in a processing plant registered as part of the programme. The programme is routinely evaluated by authorised inspectors of the Department of Environmental Health.

(4) A certificate of safety shall only be provided under subsection (3).

PART VII

LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

Presumptions.

24. (1) For the purposes of this Act or the regulations -

(a) any food commonly used for human consumption shall, if sold or offered, exposed or kept for sale be presumed, until the contrary is proved, to have been sold, or as the case may be, to have been intended for sale for human consumption;

(b) any food commonly used for human consumption which is found on any premises or in any vehicle used for the handling, preparation, processing, storage, importation, transportation, distribution, display or the sale of that food shall be presumed, until the contrary is proved, to be intended for human consumption;

(c) any article commonly used in the manufacture, handling, processing, preparation, storage, display, transportation, distribution, serving or sale that food shall be presumed until the contrary is proved to be used for food intended for human consumption.

(2) Where any food for human consumption is sold or deposited with or consigned to any person for the purpose of sale for human consumption, contained in an unopened package, any person who appears from any statement on the package or on a label attached to the package, to have imported, manufactured or prepared such food or to have enclosed it in such package, shall, until the contrary is proved, be deemed to have so imported, manufactured, prepared or enclosed the food.

(3) Where any article used in the manufacture, handling, processing, preparation, storage, display, transportation, distribution, serving or sale of food for human consumption is sold or deposited with or consigned to any person for the purpose of sale or for use in the manufacture, handling, processing, preparation, storage, display, transportation, distribution, serving or sale of food for human consumption, contained in an unopened package, any person who appears from any statement on the package or on a label attached to the package, to have imported, manufactured or prepared such article or to have enclosed it in such package, shall, until the contrary is proved, be deemed to have been so imported, manufactured, prepared or enclosed these articles, as the case may be.

(4) If a health inspector -

(a) has made a copy of any record or part of a record pursuant to this Act or regulations; and

(b) has certified the copy to be a true and correct copy of that record or part of a record, the copy is admissible in evidence in any proceedings under this Act and regulations as evidence of the matters contained in the copy and, unless the contrary is proved, may be taken to be a true and correct copy.

25. Where any food, article or record has been obtained for analysis, or seized under section 11, a prosecution for an offence against this Act in respect of it shall not be instituted after the expiration of a period of six months from the date when it was taken, seized or obtained.

Time for prosecution in certain cases.

26. (1) A person who, wilfully removes, erases, alters, breaks or opens a label, mark, seal or fastening placed by a health inspector on any food, article or record without authority is guilty of an offence.

Interference with official marks.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply in respect of a part given to that person or his agent by a health inspector under section 11.

27. Any person who -

(a) assaults, intimidates, obstructs or attempts to obstruct in any manner any health inspector in the exercise of his duties under this Act or regulations;

(b) refuses to allow, retakes or attempts to retake any food, article or record seized, condemned, sold, obtained or sampled under this Act;

(c) refuses to state, or states falsely, his or her name and place of residence upon demand by a health inspector;

(d) gives, procures, offers or promises a bribe, recompense or reward to influence any health inspector in the exercise of his duties under the Act; or

(e) fails to comply with any order or demand given by a health inspector authorised under this Act or regulations, is guilty of an offence.

Interference with official duties.

Warranties as a defence.

28. (1) In any prosecution for an offence of selling any food or article in contravention of this Act or regulations, it is a sufficient defence for the defendant to prove that -

(a) he purchased the food or article in reliance on a written warranty, given by or on behalf of the person from whom the purchase was made, to the effect that the food or article was of the same nature and substance and quality as that demanded of him by the purchaser or health inspector;

(b) the defendant, with due diligence, had no reason to believe or suspect that the food or article sold by him did not conform to the warranty.

(2) A warranty is not available as a defence unless, within seven days after service of the summons, the defendant has -

(a) sent to the health inspector and the warrantor a copy of the warranty and a statement that he intends to rely on the warranty as a defence; and

(b) sent to the health inspector the identification and address of the person from whom the warranty was received.

(3) Where the defendant is a servant or agent of the person who purchased the food or article under a warranty, he shall be entitled to rely on the provisions of this section in the same way as his employer or principal would have been entitled as if he were the defendant.

(4) A warranty given by a person resident outside the country is not available as a defence unless the defendant proves that he did in fact believe in the accuracy of the statement contained in the warranty.

(5) For the purposes of this section, a name and description entered in an invoice is to be taken to be a written warranty that the food or article to which the entry refers can be sold or otherwise dealt with by that name or description by any person without contravening any of the provisions of this Act or the regulations.

Offences in
warranties.

29. Any person who gives a warranty referred to in section 28 that is false, is guilty of an offence.

Defences without warranty.

30. (1) In any proceedings for an offence under this Act it shall be a defence for the defendant to prove -

(a) that he could not with due diligence have ascertained that the sale of the article would be in contravention of this Act or the regulations; and

(b) that in relation to an offence relating to the publication of an advertisement, the advertisement was received for publication in the ordinary course of business and he had no reason to believe that an offence would be committed by publishing such an advertisement.

(2) In any proceedings for an offence under this Act it shall be a defence for the defendant to prove that -

(a) he committed the act or default constituting the offence in the course of acting as an agent or employee of another person and without knowledge of one or more of the facts constituting the offence; and

(b) the other person or employer is a firm or corporation having a place of business in Solomon Islands.

31. (1) On the conviction of a person for an offence against the Act or regulations, any food or article to which the conviction relates may, by order of the court, be forfeited for destruction or disposal.

Conviction, forfeiture and costs.

(2) The costs incurred by the State, local or provincial authority in connection with sampling, analysis and the lawful destruction or disposal of the food or article shall be ordered by the court to be a debt due to the state, local or provincial authority by the person against whom the conviction is made.

(3) For any such debt as described in subsection (2), a certificate signed by the Permanent Secretary, Provincial Secretary or Town Clerk as the case may be stating the amount of any costs and the manner in which they were incurred is evidence of matters certified.

32. A person who is guilty of an offence against this Act for which no other penalty is prescribed is liable to a maximum penalty of one thousand dollars or imprisonment for a term of six months or both; and in the case of a second or subsequent offence a maximum penalty of one thousand five hundred dollars or imprisonment for a term of six months or both.

General Penalty.

33. (1) No legal proceedings shall be instituted in any court against any person who is authorised by this Act to perform any function or duty for anything done or intended to be done in good faith pursuant to the powers granted to him under this Act.

Protection for official Act.

ADMINISTRATION

Establishment, composition and functions of a Pure Food
Advisory Board.

34. (1) There shall be established for the purpose of this Act, a Board to be known as the Pure Food Advisory Board.

(2) The Board shall consist of -

- (a) the Under Secretary (Health Improvement);
- (b) the Director of Health;
- (c) the Principal Health Inspector (Food Safety);
- (d) the Food Analyst, Ministry of Health and Medical Services; and

(e) a representative from the Consumer Affairs Division, Commerce.

(3) The functions of the Board shall be to deliberate and make recommendations to the Minister -

(a) on the administration and implementation of, and any other matters relating to the Act and its regulations and standards;

(b) on approaches to more effectively secure the safety and wholesomeness of food; and

(c) on any matters that the Minister may refer to the Board.

Slaughter places and dairy farms.

35. (1) The Minister shall for the purposes of this Act, appoint the Director of Livestock and Veterinary Services as the senior meat and dairy hygiene inspector and such other meat and dairy hygiene inspectors as may be necessary with all the powers and responsibilities of a health inspector under this Act and regulations in relation to -

(a) the slaughtering of animals for human consumption, the processing of meat within slaughterplaces, storage of the products of slaughter within slaughterplaces and transportation and distribution of the products of slaughter; and

(b) the obtaining, from animals, of milk for human consumption, the storage of that milk on the dairy farm and its transportation to dairy plants.

(2) Within an area of a five kilometre radius from a duly licensed and registered slaughterplace, no animal may be slaughtered for sale or for human consumption other than on the premises duly licensed and registered, in the manner prescribed, as slaughterplaces for that purpose.

(3) Any person who, on any premises, within a five kilometre radius around a duly licensed and registered slaughterplace, establishes or carries out the slaughtering of an animal for sale or for human consumption, without the premises being duly licensed and registered is guilty of an offence.

(4) For locations outside an area of a five kilometre radius from a duly licensed and registered slaughterplace, an animal may be slaughtered for sale or for human consumption other than on a premises duly licensed and registered, subject to the slaughterplace and slaughtering process satisfying all other requirements of this Act and regulations.

(5) Any person who, on any premises, carries out the slaughtering, for human consumption, of a diseased animal or an animal that has died other than as a result of the slaughtering process is guilty of an offence.

(6) Any person who, on any premises establishes or carries out the slaughtering of an animal for sale, or human consumption, in contravention of the provisions of this Act and the regulations is guilty of an offence.

(7) Any person who, on any premises, establishes or carries out the collection, storage or processing of milk for sale or for human consumption, without the premises being duly licensed and registered is guilty of an offence.

(8) Any person who, on any premises, establishes or carries out the collection, storage or processing of milk for sale or for human consumption, in contravention of the provisions of this Act and the regulations is guilty of an offence.

Relationship to to other laws.

36. Where in any other Act, regulation, by-law, rule or Ordinance, any provision relating to food for sale or articles used in the preparation, handling, processing, manufacture, preservation, packing, transportation, storage, display or serving of food for sale, is inconsistent with the provisions of this Act or any related regulation, the provisions of this Act and its regulations shall prevail.

Regulations.

37. (1) The Minister may make regulations, not inconsistent with this Act, for or with respect to any matter required or permitted to be prescribed or that is necessary or convenient to be prescribed for carrying out or giving effect to this Act.

(2) In particular, regulations may be made for or with respect to any of the following -

(a) standards for food, food additives and packaging, including labelling, composition, strength, purity, character and microbiological, chemical and physical quality;

(b) requiring persons who sell food, to maintain such books and records considered necessary for the proper administration and enforcement of this Act;

(c) providing for the analysis of food and prescribing methods and fees for such analysis;

(d) exempting any food or article from any or all of the provisions of the Act and prescribing the conditions of such exemption;

(e) requiring procedures for the recall and destruction of food ;

(f) providing for the giving, service and enforcement of directions, orders or notices for the rectification of acts or omissions in contravention of this Act or the regulations;

(g) rates of payment for samples of food obtained for the purposes of this Act;

(h) rates of payment for inspections carried out for the purposes of this Act;

(i) the conditions under which food for sale shall be handled, including temperature of the food cooked, stored, displayed for sale and sold; and

(j) prescribing anything which is to be or which may be prescribed under this Act.
